

California Adaptation Forum 2016 • Long Beach, CA

Session: Green for Green: Financing and Funding for a Resilient Future

Green for Green:

Financing and Funding for a Resilient Future

Welcome & Session Overview

- Introduction

- Susi Moser (Susanne Moser Research & Consulting, Stanford University)

5 min

- Panelists' presentations

- Jessica Grannis (Gerogetown Climate Center)
- Josh Brock (Renovate America)
- Shalini Vajjhala (re:focus partners)
- Q&A with panelists

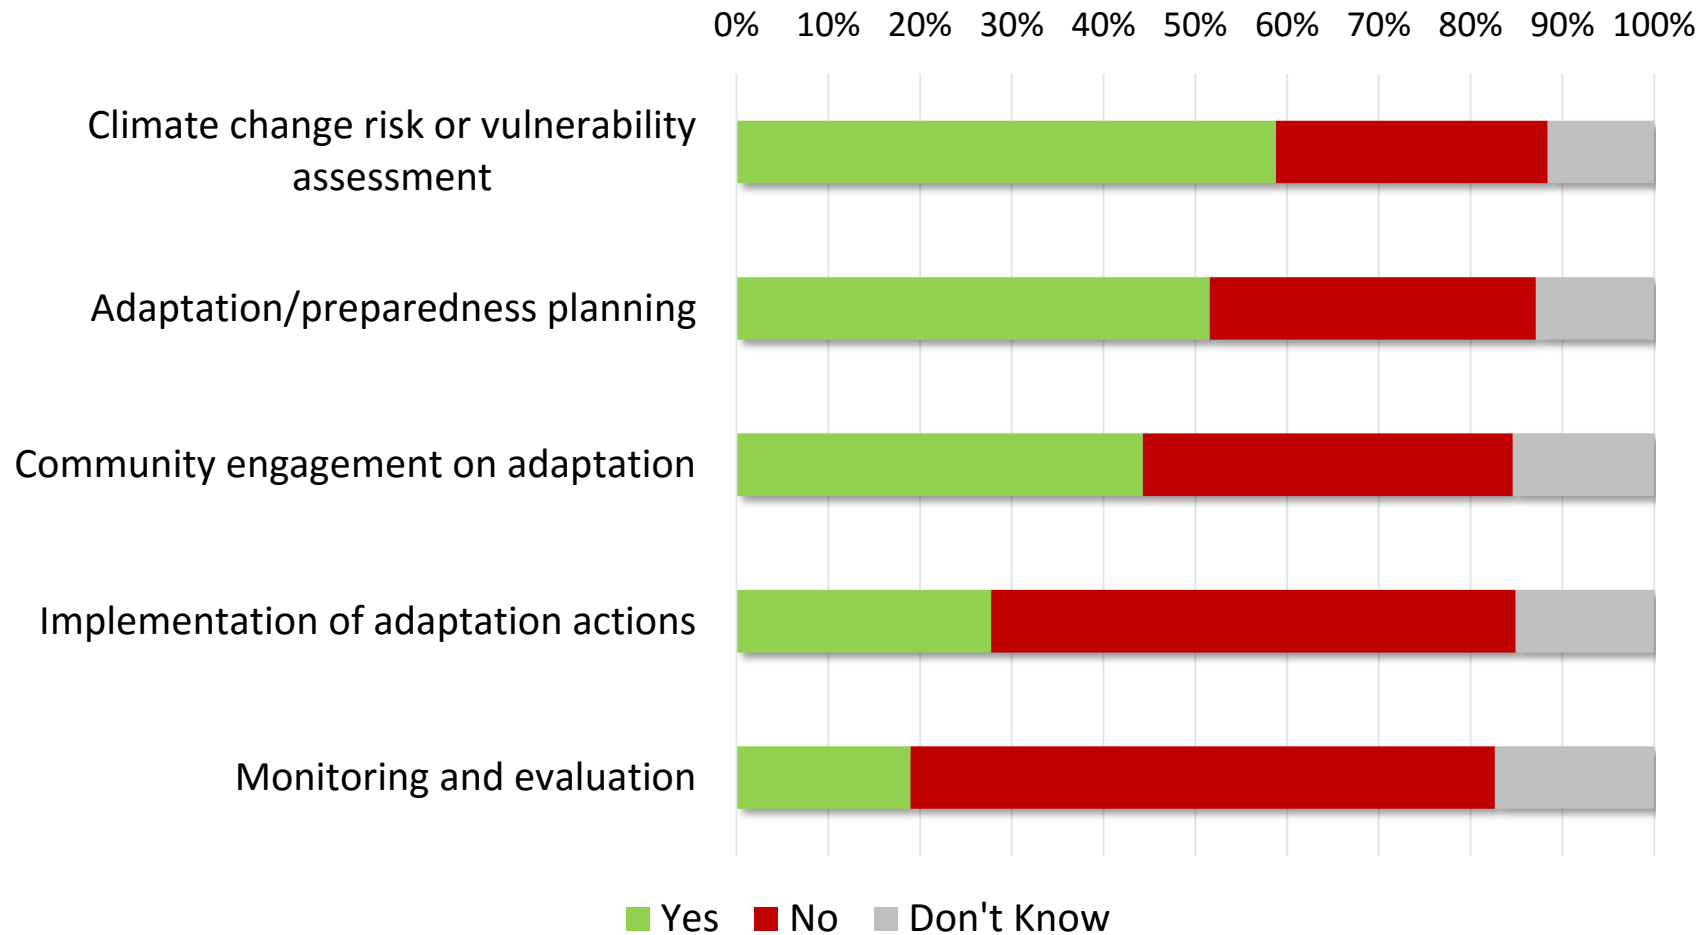

45 min

- Broader discussion

25 min

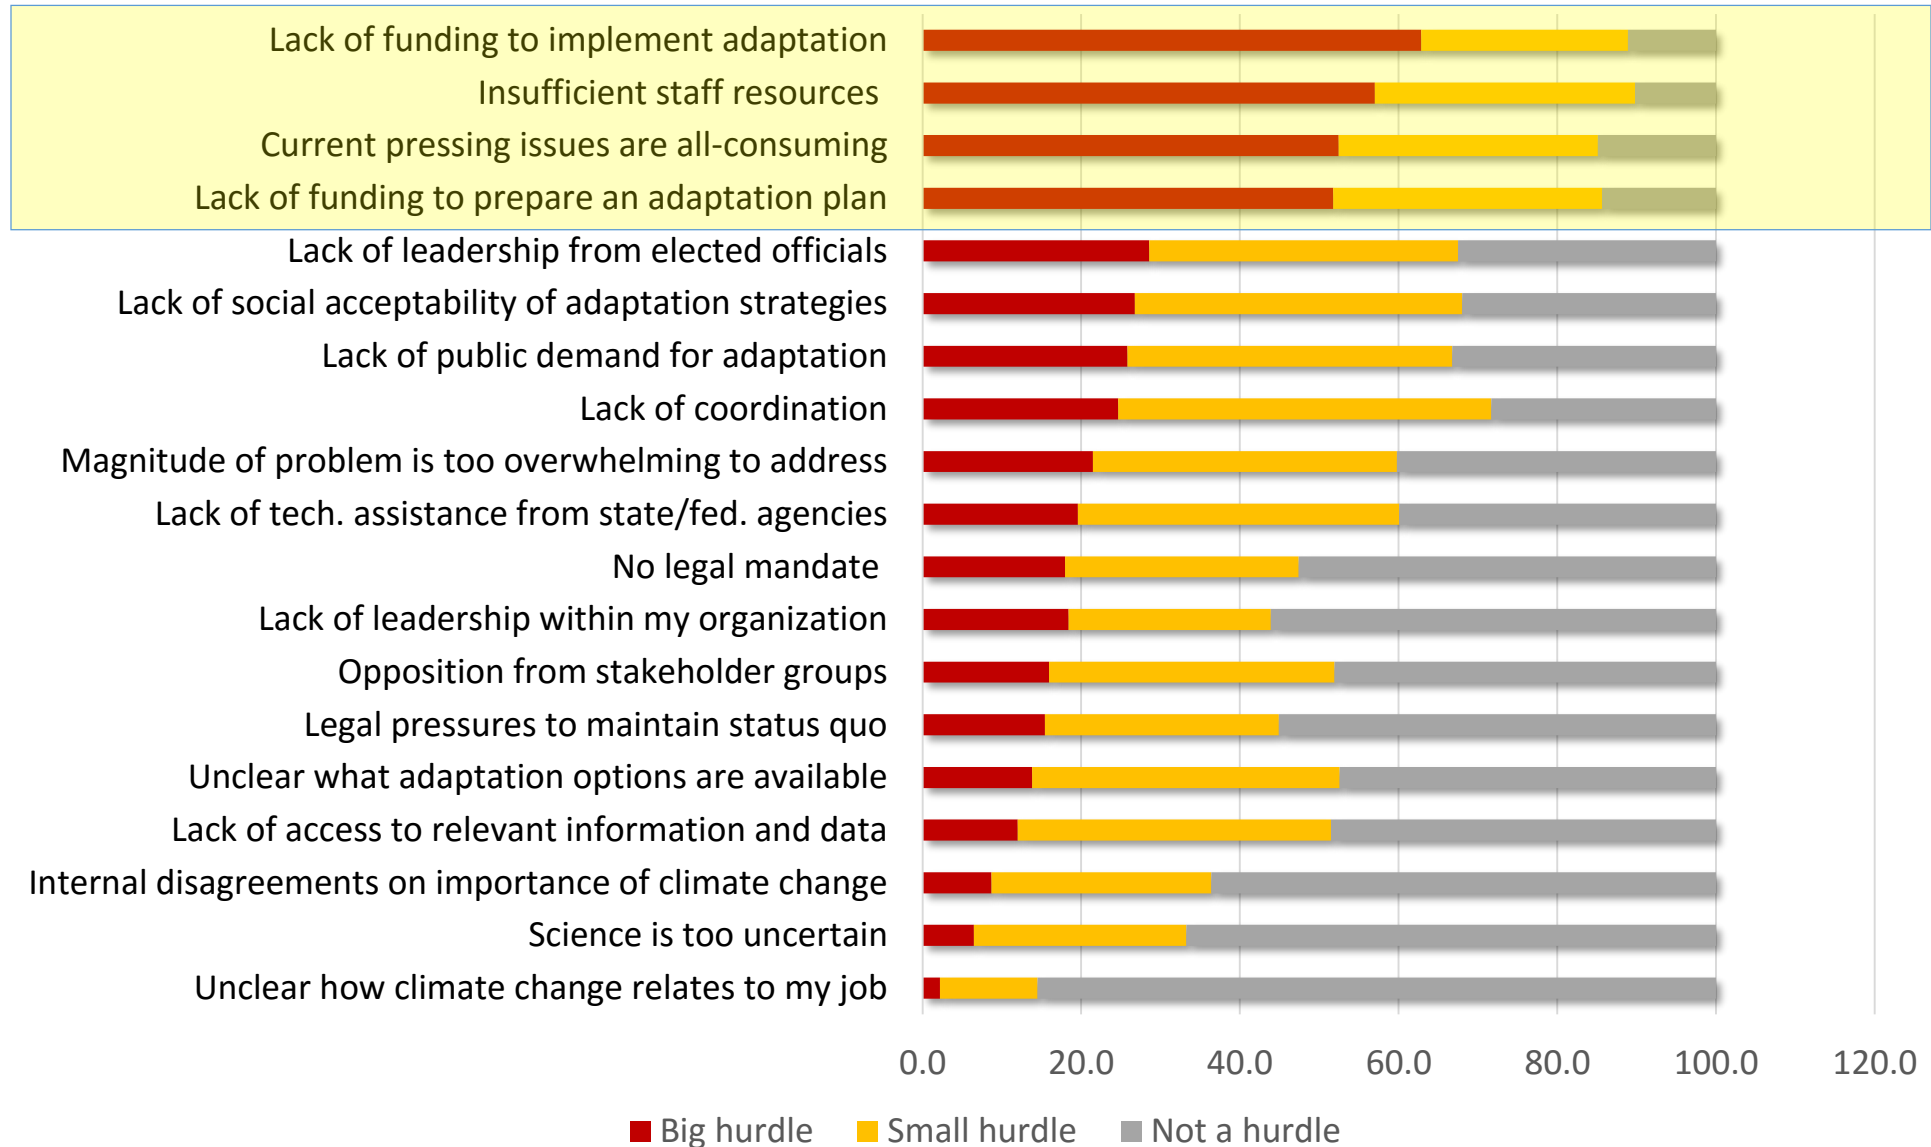

Did You Spend Money on Adaptation-related Activities Over the Past 3 Years?

Source: Preliminary results, 2016 Coastal Adaptation Needs Assessment (Moser, Finzi Hart, Mann, Griffman et al., 2016)

Severity of Barriers to Adaptation in 2016

(by percent of respondents/barrier)

Source: Preliminary results, 2016 Coastal Adaptation Needs Assessment (Moser, Finzi Hart, Mann, Griffman et al., 2016)

Outlook: Funding Needs Are Only Growing

- Preliminary CANA survey results:

Expressed financial needs over next 5 years are ~2 orders of magnitude larger compared to spending over past 3 years

Want to learn more and get involved?

As part of California's Fourth Climate Assessment

Joint research project on financial barriers with ICF and LGC

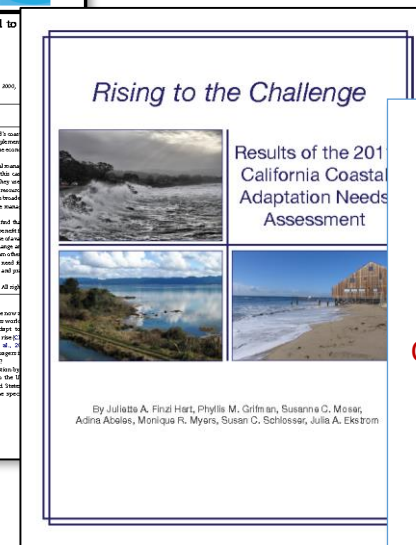

CA coastal adaptation needs assessment with USC, USGS, others

Join us for an interactive workshop to share about the financial and organizational challenges and barriers you face in implementing local adaptation strategies!

Central Valley September 29th 1:00-5:00 PM Tulare, CA	Central Coast October 4th 1:00-5:00 PM San Luis Obispo, CA	North Coast September 29th 1:00-5:00 PM Eureka, CA
Capital Region October 21st 1:00-5:00 PM Sacramento, CA	Sierra Nevada October 24th 1:00-5:00 PM Truckee, CA	San Diego Region October 26th 1:30-5:30 PM San Diego, CA

Learn more and register at overcome-adaptation-barriers.eventbrite.com.

The project is part of California's Fourth Climate Change Assessment implemented by ICF International, the Local Government Commission and Susanne Moser Research & Consulting. Learn more at <https://www.lgc.org/fourth-assessment/>.

The 2016 California Coastal Adaptation Needs Assessment

(preliminary results)

People with Answers: Our Panelists...

